The Downtown Core Zone District (DTC) Excerpt

The Downtown Core (DTC) district is a very dense mixed-use urban area. Residential dwellings are generally multiple-family and located in tall structures. Residential dwellings may be built up to a maximum density of fifty (50) dwelling units per acre. Non-residential uses are varied and include department stores, entertainment facilities, restaurants, offices and lodging uses. Ground floor retail is allowed everywhere and is mandatory on certain designated frontages. Building height shall be limited to a maximum of ten (10) stories except as provided for in Table 1003 (Building Height). Building frontages include stoops, forecourts and storefronts.

When the Zone District Regulations apply:

- These regulations apply to all new development.
- To any expansion or exterior remodeling of existing buildings with a final determination from the Planning Director.

For example, remodeling a storefront may require compliance with standards, such as; window area, window shape and exterior finish materials and an addition would need to comply with standards, such as; setbacks, height limits and parking.

When these regulations do not apply:

- Existing buildings and uses that do not conform to the provisions of these regulations may continue as they are. However, if a prohibited use ceases for 24 consecutive months, the use shall not be re-established. The Planning Director may grant one extension for an additional 12 months, provided the property owner applies for the extension at least 60 days prior to the end of the original 24-month period. The application shall demonstrate that restoration of the use has been diligently pursued and that practical difficulties will preclude a timely restoration of the use within the original 24-month period. Subsequent uses shall conform to the district regulations. Any final decision of the Planning Director may be appealed to the Planning Board in accord with Section IV-1901 (F) of this code.
- Normal repair and maintenance may be performed on existing buildings.

For example, (1) repair of a broken window would not require compliance with the building design standards for window area and shape or (2) repair of a leaking roof would not require compliance with the roof design standards.

- Any existing or approved structure or structures on a single zoning lot under condominium ownership or cooperative long term leases may be rebuilt after destruction to the prior extent of nonconformity as to height, stories and density of units per acre regardless of the percentage of destruction. In the event of such rebuilding, all other applicable district requirements shall be met unless an Adjustment is obtained in accord with Section IV-1903 of this code.

Valid Development Approvals:

- A project for which an application for site plan approval has been filed prior to the effective date of these regulations may be reviewed, approved and constructed under the prior regulations.
- A project for which a site plan has been approved under the prior regulations may be constructed as approved provided a building permit is issued prior to expiration of such approval.

- Structures and uses in projects filed prior to the effective date or which have already been approved and issued a building permit prior to expiration of such approval shall not be deemed nonconforming but shall be deemed to be lawfully existing in conformity with these regulations and shall be allowed to continue as lawfully existing uses or structures.

Development Standards Excerpts:

Density	50 units / acre
Height	10 Stories
Zoning Lot Size Minimum	1,800 sq. ft.
Building Setback
Minimum Front	0 ft.
Maximum Front	5 ft.
Minimum Side	0 ft.
Minimum Rear	0 ft.

Note: Additional Exceptions for Height in the DTC.

Existing buildings over 10 stories. In the DTC, an existing building (as of January 6, 2003) over 10 stories in height may be removed, demolished, or destroyed and replaced with a new building. The maximum height of such new building shall be either the number of feet which previously existed in the demolished building or the maximum number of stories allowed in DTC, whichever is greater.

Parking Requirements:

	DTC
Required Parking
- Residential	1.0 spaces for each dwelling unit
- Non-Residential	1.0 space for each 500 sq. ft. of floor area
- Transient Lodging	0.5 space for each guest unit.
- Bicycle	One bicycle parking space shall be provided for every fifteen off-street vehicular parking spaces.
Exceptions to Required Parking	Liner buildings and independent building of less than 10,000 sq. ft. floor area shall not be required to provide off-street parking. On street parking along the corresponding frontage lines shall be counted toward fulfilling the parking requirements. Locally designated historic buildings shall not be required to provide parking in addition to that, which exists.
Location of Required Parking - Primary Street Grid (See Map VI-1001)	Surface parking shall be located in the second or third layer and masked by a street wall or liner building. Garages shall be located in the third layer and masked by a liner building. Loading areas / spaces are prohibited along frontages.

The required design standards are stated in Table VI-1004 of the Downtown Code. These standards are limited to portions of buildings with frontages that face a primary street. Building frontages that face a secondary street are exempt from these standards.

Intent of Primary Street Frontages:

An excellent frontage is one that provides a high level of positive stimulus and interaction for the pedestrian. In an ideal setting, buildings would form a continuous edge, generally up against the outer edge of the right-of-way, with large expanses of glass for pedestrians to see what is happening inside, and a constant sense of give-and-take between inside and outside. The width of the buildings along the street would be relatively narrow, with a range and variety of stores and shops. Restaurants and other uses might spill out onto the sidewalk creating open-air cafes, galleries and other attractions. Landscaping is prevalent, but does not dominate the setting, and does not prevent the pedestrian from getting close to the buildings, storefronts and display window.

Low Tax Opportunity Zone FAQ

Q: What is a Low Tax Opportunity Zone?

A: Opportunity Zones, as established in the federal Tax Cut and Jobs Act of 2017, encourage long-term investment and job creation in targeted communities by reducing taxes for job creators. Opportunity Zones maintain their designation for 10 years. The program encourages private investment in these zones by providing a tax incentive for investors who invest in qualified businesses and property in these areas.

Investors, such as businesses, developers and financial institutions that invest in targeted areas can defer capital gains taxes through investments in federally-established Opportunity Funds.

Q: How was the Opportunity Zone program created?

A: The Opportunity Zone program was created as a part of the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act of 2017, signed by President Donald Trump in December 2017.

Q: Who determines Opportunity Zones?

A: The act allows the Governor of each state to nominate up to 25 percent of eligible census tracts as Opportunity Zones. States then submit their nominations to the U.S. Department of the Treasury, which has 30 days to certify the Opportunity Zones or provide further guidance to the state.

Q: What are census tracts?

A: Census tracts are small, relatively permanent statistical subdivisions of a county that are updated before each U.S. Census. The U.S. Census counts every resident every 10 years. Census tracts average about 4,000 people. A census tract usually covers a geographically contiguous area. For example, in urban areas, census tracts correspond roughly to neighborhoods.

Q: How many census tracts can Florida nominate?

A: Florida can nominate 427 census tracts based on the federal requirements for this program.

Q: What are low-income census tracts?

A: The poverty rate for each census tract is based on how household income compares to the national thresholds calculated by the Census Bureau. A census tract is designated as a Low-Income Community when 20 percent or more of households in the tract fall below the poverty line (for their household size) or the median family income in the tract is below 80 percent of the statewide median income.

Q: What is a contiguous tract, and were those included in the nomination?

A: The tax bill allowed 5% of tract nominations to be tracts that did not meet the low-income designation but were contiguous, or next to, other tracts that did meet the criteria. Florida chose not to nominate contiguous tracts so that the areas with the most need could be designated.

Q: How were Opportunity Zones chosen to be nominated?

A: DEO's economists used a combination of data and project requests to determine the Zones. A statistical model was created using census tract data and other economic indicators, such as poverty level, unemployment rates and population density. DEO used a proportional method of nominating tracts so that every county received at least one census tract nomination. Finally, DEO incorporated into the model requests from city and county governments, regional planning councils, nonprofits, investors, developers and others.

Q: Why were some requests not included as an Opportunity Zone?

A: DEO received requests for more than 1,200 census tracts, which is more than the 427 the state can nominate. Feedback was incorporated as much as possible, and balanced with the economic analysis. For example, a request in an area with very low unemployment may not have been chosen.

Q: How do Florida communities benefit from the Opportunity Zone program?

A: Counties across Florida benefit from having another tool in their economic development toolbox. From rural communities to urban areas, this program will allow investors to strategically invest in targeted communities. This will build on each county's economic development plan, bringing more jobs and capital investment into every county across Florida.

Q: What are the next steps?

A: The U.S. Department of the Treasury has 30 days to certify that the nominated tracts meet the criteria in the law. The Internal Revenue Service intends to start a rulemaking process to designate Opportunity Funds to be eligible to invest in these zones. More information about this process can be found here:

<https://www.irs.gov/pub/irs-drop/rp-18-16.pdf>

<https://home.treasury.gov/news/press-release/sm0283>

<https://www.cdfifund.gov/Pages/Opportunity-Zones.aspx>

Bill Text: <https://www.congress.gov/115/bills/s293/BILLS-115s293is.pdf>

Q: What is Florida's role in the Opportunity Zone program moving forward?

A: The legislation provides Florida the ability to nominate census tracts for the designation of Opportunity Zones. Opportunity Funds and their investments will be private-sector driven. Once a zone is certified by the U.S. Department of the Treasury, local communities will promote their Opportunity Zones to qualified Opportunity Funds in order to secure investments and bring additional economic development to local businesses and families.

Q: What are Opportunity Funds?

A: Opportunity Funds will be designated through the U.S. Department of the Treasury and the Internal Revenue Service as eligible based on rulemaking that has not yet taken place. The Opportunity Funds must invest 90 percent of their fund in Opportunity Zones to receive the tax benefits, which will vary depending on the number of years the investment is held in the Zones.
